

EPHRAIM

Special to The Tribune.
EPHRAIM, Aug. 27.—Miss Nora Bertleson of this city, who has been spending the past four years in Salt Lake, returned home Monday with Thomas Cole of South Dakota, and Tuesday evening they were united in marriage at the house of her aunt, Mrs. Emma Olson. The ceremony was performed by Bishop John S. Bond. Many relatives and friends were assembled at the home, where an elaborate dinner was given in their honor. They left the following day for Dakota, where they will make their home. Miss Bertleson was born and raised in this city and is one of the popular young ladies of this community.

James Anderson of this city and Anna Johnson of Mt. Pleasant will be married September 1. After their marriage they leave for Idaho, where they intend making their home during the coming winter.

One of the pretty social events of the season was that of Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hanson entertained a number of their relatives and friends at a dinner party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Thorvald Hansen, Mrs. Hulda Hansen, Mrs. Lizzie Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnson, Miss Anna Frost and Miss Ada Johnson.

The party given yesterday afternoon by Miss Anna Frost at her home in the northern part of the city was one of the elaborate affairs of the season. The decorations were beautiful, and consisted of sweet peas and golden glow. The ladies arrived shortly after 3:30 and at 3 an elaborate lunch was served. A large bouquet of sweet peas was given to each guest, and a beautiful bouquet was placed in the center of the table. Those present were Mrs. Stagner, Mrs. John Dornus and her daughter, Hazel, all of Salt Lake; Miss Josephine Mortensen, Miss Alice Lund, Miss Esther Anderson, Miss Rhoda Larson, Miss Bell Dunn and Mrs. H. E. Jensen of this city.

Miss Anna Frost leaves tomorrow for Preston, Idaho, where she will again take to her work as instructor of art at the Graceland State academy.

Yesterday the relatives met at the home of Peter Greaves, Sr., in honor of his seventy-second anniversary. An elaborate dinner was spread and a pleasant time reported. Mr. Greaves was given many beautiful presents. The decorations in the dining room were beautiful, the flowers of the season being used in profusion.

Andrew Armstrong is reported to be slowly recovering from a severe attack of appendicitis.

Many friends of Edgar Frost met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Greaves and gave him a pleasant surprise, bringing with them a nice lunch, which was served during the afternoon. Games of various kinds were played and a fine musical program was carried out.

Thomas Martin and Willard Peterson, directors of the Golden Reef mine, went to Salt Lake, Tuesday, to make arrangements to have their ore shipped from Elko to the Salt Lake shippers.

Mrs. Thomas S. Lund returned Monday from Mantel, where she has spent the past two weeks visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hendle.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Mortensen pleasantly entertained a group of friends Sunday evening, complimentary to Fred Jorgensen, who returned recently from a two-years' mission in Denmark.

Niels Frantzen of Richmond and J. R. Ruchbold of Nephi were here during the early part of the week, purchasing sheep. Gesenel Greaves is again seen on the streets. He met with an accident during the early part of the week, while wrestling. His right arm was badly strained.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Rasmussen were visitors to Salt Lake during the early part of the week.

Mrs. Peter Olsen, Jr., returned home after having spent the last three months in Denmark.

Cannus Lund of Salt Lake has been here during the past two weeks, visiting with relatives.
